Announcement for Students

The administration of the Faculty of Law and Political Science informs students that it has been decided to schedule makeup sessions for assessments related to supervised coursework for students who were absent during the week before the last week before the holiday, i.e., between December 9 and December 14, 2023.

These sessions will take place at the same time as the regular session for the respective subject and in the same classroom. Additionally, exams related to supervised coursework will be held in the last week before the holiday, i.e., between December 16 and December 21, 2023, at the same times and in the same classrooms as the regular sessions.
