2/ Discuss the various elements of state : (10 points)

The concept of the state refers to a political organization with defined geographical boundaries, a permanent population, a system of governance, and the ability to enter into relations with other states. The state is a complex entity, and various elements contribute to its structure and functioning. Here are some of the key elements of the state:

Territory: The state has a specific geographical area with defined boundaries. These boundaries determine the extent of the state's jurisdiction and control. Territorial integrity is a fundamental aspect of statehood.(2points)

Population: A state consists of a permanent population that resides within its borders. The demographic makeup of the population can vary in terms of size, diversity, and distribution.(2points)

Sovereignty: Sovereignty refers to the state's supreme and independent authority over its territory and population. It implies the absence of external control or interference in domestic affairs.(2points)

Government: The state has a system of governance or a political organization that formulates and implements laws, policies, and decisions. This may include various institutions, such as the executive, legislative, and judicial branches.(2points)

Recognition: Recognition is often considered a key criterion for statehood under international law. The acknowledgment of a political entity as a state by other sovereign states is a significant aspect of its legal status in the international system.(2points)
