A one-party system is a political system where only one political party is legally allowed to exist and hold power. It suppresses opposition parties, limiting political competition and pluralism. The one-party system is allowed to control and run the government. A one-party system doesn't allow for much diversity of opinion. One-party system is effectively dictatorship. The one-party system works in different ways. North Korea, the Soviet Union, Mainland China and Vietnam have different governing systems despite all being one party state. For example, in China, only the Communist Party is allowed to rule. The Party-State is a fused organization so that at the top level, people are simultaneously state officials and party officials.
