

Djilali Bounaama Khemis Meliana University
Law faculty and political science
Bachelor's degree third year
Major : Public Law
First semester / 2024/2025

English terminology Exam Ordinary session (January 2025)

امتحان مقياس لغة أجنبية، سنة الثالثة تخصص قانون عام
الدورة العادية (جانفي 2025)

True/False Questions (10 points)

- 1 The President of Algeria is both the Head of State and the Head of Government. (True/False)
- 2 The executive power in Algeria is organized into central and local administrative bodies. (True/False)
- 3 The Prime Minister is appointed by the President and is responsible for implementing government policy. (True/False)
- 4 The Council of Ministers is a deliberative body chaired by the Prime Minister. (True/False)
- 5 The President has the power to dissolve the People's National Assembly. (True/False)
- 6 The executive branch has exclusive power to legislate on all matters of public policy. (True/False)
- 7 The President cannot initiate constitutional amendments under Algerian law. (True/False)
- 8 The wali, as a representative of the State, directly participates in the Council of Ministers' deliberations. (True/False)
- 9 The Prime Minister coordinates government action and oversees ministerial activities. (True/False)
- 10 In Algeria, the President has the authority to declare a state of emergency or siege. (True/False)

Essay Question (10 points)

Discuss the distribution of executive power in Algeria, highlighting the roles of the President, Prime Minister, and Council of Ministers.

Good Luck
Dr Zaki Lounaouci